

Name	Antony Ellman
Nationality	British
Currently based in	London, UK
e-Mail contact	antonyellman @ developmentnetwork.org.uk (not hyperlinked - please type into your email program)
Qualifications / Memberships	Merton College Oxford: BA Hons Agriculture, 1962 Merton College Oxford: MA Agriculture, 1963 London School of Economics: M. Phil. Qual, Social Anthropology, 1972 Tropical Agriculture Association British Beekeepers Association
Languages (1 basic – 5 fluent)	French 4; Swahili 4; Spanish 2; Italian 2; Sinhala1
Key skills information:	Agriculture (food and cash crops), Smallholder Farming Systems, Rural Development Planning, Linking Farmers to Markets, Farmers Organisations
Country experience	Tanzania and East/Central/Southern Africa (total residence/experience c 15 yrs), Sri Lanka (total residence 5 yrs), India (1 yr), Ethiopia (1 yr), South East Asia, South Pacific, Central America, Caribbean (many short assignments).
Work experience
Current / recent positions	Freelance consultant for Oxfam, Traidcraft, DFID, USAID, WHO, East African Botanicals etc (see below) BESO volunteer (Zanzibar, 2000, 2002,2006, Tanzania 2004)
Recent assignment (examples)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consultancies on market-based agricultural development planning in South Africa, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Cambodia (Oxfam 1999-2001) • Adviser on fair-traded tea sourcing in Tanzania, Kenya, Rwanda, South Africa (Traidcraft/Teadirect 1997-2005) • Consultant on outgrower production of Artemisia annua for antimalarial drug manufacture in Tanzania, Kenya and China (DFID, USAID, WHO, 1999-present)
CDC career	1985 – 1996 Senior Agriculturalist (Smallholder Specialist) in Natural Resources Dept, New Business Dept, Managed Business Dept (1985-1994); Outgrower Manager, East Usambara Tea Company, Tanzania (1994 - 1996)
Earlier career	Agricultural Planning Consultant, Ethiopia (Oxfam, 1984-85) Assistant Director, Food Production and Rural Development, (Commonwealth Secretariat, 1976-84) Land Settlement Adviser, Sri Lanka (FAO, 1972-76).